About the Soldiers' Wills: The soldiers' wills were usually found in pay books retrieved on the battlefield, recorded on forms in Army record offices in Britain, or in the absence of a will, in letters home in which soldiers might mention their last wishes. After the War Office had settled the estate of a soldier who died on active service, including entitlements to pay and pension, they sent the will to the civil authorities. For soldiers with a Scottish domicile this was the Commissary Office in Edinburgh. After 1940, the wills were transmitted to Register House, where they are now preserved by the National Records of Scotland.

The National Records of Scotland & ScotlandsPeople National Records of Scotland is a Non-Ministerial Department of the Scottish Government. It holds and gives access to the nation's archives, oversees the registration of births, marriages and deaths, produces statistics on Scotland's population and conducts the Scottish Census. It is a centre of expertise on data handling, record keeping and archives.

ScotlandsPeople.gov.uk, the official genealogy website for Scottish ancestry, is a partnership between the National Records of Scotland and the Court of the Lord Lyon, enabled by DC Thomson Family History.

British Interest Group

Meetings on the 1st Wednesday of the month at Phil Leonard Room, Launceston State Library, from 2:00 to 4:00.

We are a small group of enthusiastic members of the Tasmanian Family History Society Inc. Launceston Branch, with an interest in anything associated with researching in Britain. The meetings are generally of an informal nature, designed to enable the discussion of either a specific subject, current problems being encountered, or more usually, both.

New members are always welcome, so if you are researching British ancestors and their families, why not come along and join us?

British Interest Group

Our last British Interest Group meeting which was a computer session related to Family History programmes, and was well attended with the addition of a couple of very welcome guests who apparently found our friendly little group informative and enjoyable company and so we are hoping that they return and become members.

Although the topic for our next meeting might sound somewhat sinister—"Obscure and puzzling Causes of Death"—I'm quite sure we will have enough material for a lively discussion on this subject. But if not, we will quickly change course, solving someone's brick-wall, or following another subject which members are interested in—we are very flexible!

For those of you with family who have seemingly disappeared and may have emigrated to Canada, the following item may be of interest

Irene Taylor

CANADIAN RECORDS AVAILABLE AT FamilySearch.org

FamilySearch.org has indexed an additional 354,000 Ontario marriage records. This collection spans the years from 1869 to 1927 and can be searched by name. Access is free. See Ontario Marriage Records at <https://familysearch.org/search/collection/1784216>

Also indexed are some 1.7million records of Canadian passenger lists. These lists can be searched by name, making it easy to find ancestors. The list of ports covered is extensive: Quebec City (1900 to 1921); Halifax (1881 to 1922); Saint John (1900 to 1912); North Sydney (1906 to 1912); Vancouver (1905 to 1912) and Victoria (1905 to 1912). Also included are records from New York (1906 to 1912) and other Eastern US ports that list the names of passengers who intended to proceed directly to Canada.

Each record lists the full name of the individual, the date of arrival, port of arrival, place of birth and the name of the ship. Some of the original records contain additional information. Access to this collection is free. See these Canadian Passenger Lists at https://familysearch.org/search/collection/1823240?ET_CID=45596243
